Jordan Kenton Thomas

Producer/Director

Overview & Experience

I am an Enthusiastic and organised Producer Director working across, scripted, documentary, and factual entertainment. I am a skilled shooter & edit producer, with experience working with high profile talent and seeing projects from development through to edit.
Nominated for Edinburgh TV Festival New Voice Awards for Debut Director – Unscripted 2024
Commissioned by ITV & Multistory to create a feature length documentary or their Fresh Cuts strand.

I have experience as a writer in drama, comedy, and children's animation, with a passion for exploring stories about underrepresented characters, specifically those who are minority ethnic and working class.
I am also an experienced narrative film director, earning commissions from Channel 4 and Screen Yorkshire. Currently developing an original animation project commissioned by Bright Little Labs and Warner Media.

Noteworthy affiliations include BBC Drama Room 23/24, the Royal Court Writers Programme, and the Soho Theatre Writers Group, highlighting my commitment to storytelling.
